29. Declaration By Applicant and Sponsor

(a) Applicant:

I declare that all the information provided above for the purpose of becoming a member of the Club is accurate. I fully understand that any false information may lead to a rejection of my application or (if already admitted) instant expulsion from the Club. I further declare that I have read and fully understand the governing rules of the club and hereby agree to abide by them, including those noted in Box 28 above. In particular I fully understand that I am expected by the rest of the membership to be fully committed to all activities of the Club, including financial and regular attendance at meetings. I will voluntarily withdraw from membership if, subsequent to being admitted to membership, I am unable to fulfil these commitments without compelling reasons, duly accepted as such by the rest of the membership. I accept that the Club's decision on this application and other membership-related matters is final.

Applicant's Signature..... Date:.....

(b) Sponsor:

I declare that the above applicant is a person well known to me. To the best of my knowledge, I believe him to be reliable, trustworthy, honest and very likely to be fully committed to the ideals and rules of the Club. I accordingly recommend him for membership, bearing in mind my responsibility to protect, at all times, the interest of all existing Club members. I accept that, upon being admitted to membership, should the Applicant fail to abide by the Club's rules or fulfil his agreed commitments to the Club, the Club may, by a simple majority decision at a properly constituted meeting, terminate this membership, provided that at least two written warnings had earlier been given to the defaulting member. I accept that the Club's decision on this application is final.
